

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Joseph McDonald, 19, arrested. Solicited subscriptions for monthly publication. Said to have kept money.

John Vzoyolkowski, 4, 8342 Burley av., struck by car. Severely injured.

Mrs. J. V. Evens, who was arrested in a State st. shop, identified as Mrs. Clara Sage of St. Louis. Was arrested before for shoplifting.

National Emergency Hospital, 1428 Wells st., run by Dr. L. D. Rogers, closed.

Anti-Hearst Trade Union League to hold regular weekly meeting tonight at Ruud's Hall, Wabansia and Washtenaw avs.

International Hotel Workers, Local No. 5, opened headquarters at 738 N. Wells st. To begin campaign for better wages. Edward Blochinger in charge.

International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen will give 19th annual ball at North Side Turner Hall, December 6.

D. T. Donovan, ticket agent 12th st. "L" station, pulled gun and chased negro bandit.

Robert Peterson, 1839 W. Huron st., struck wife. Then jumped from window. Fractured skull.

Judge Scully released eight prisoners yesterday.

Stanley Martin, 538 Grand av., armless man, saved Henry Carlson, 4100 Vincennes av., from drowning in lake. Put leg out and drowning man grasped it.

Mrs. Anna Kleckner, 2208 W. Grand av., charged with murder of Mrs. Henry Bloug. Said to have performed criminal operation. Denies charge.

John Barrick, 7, 5859 Av. L, ran into car on Whiting st. Skull fractured. Dead.

Miss Anna Gold, 1510 W. Harrison st., died at Englewood Hospital. Alleged illegal operation. Coroner investigating.

John Hart, 52, 1625 N. Fairfield av., dead. Morphine poisoning. Accidental.

John Towhig, 19, chauffeur, 828 S. Loomis st., arrested. Auto ran into framework of Madison st. bridge.

Man believed to be James Gaffney of Milwaukee, Wis., probably fatally hurt. Struck by State st. car.

Herman Botcher, 1828 Bissell st., suicide. Despondent over ill health. Gun.

Mrs. Mary Fournier, 71, 3348 W. 21st st., fell down stairway. Dead.

William Seitt, 1718 Federal st., stabbed. Albert Moseley, negro, 1528 S. Wabash, arrested.

Walter Schultz, St. Louis, Mo., robbed. $610. Friend named Frank O'Breinske missing.

Store of Mrs. J. H. Stouffer, 3231 Calumet av., robbed. Silver platter gone.

Armed burglar chased by detectives in Cohan's Grand Opera House. Nearly upset ahaw. Escaped over roof while detectives waited below.

Detective Joyce, Desplaines st. station, went to rescue kidnaped woman. Fired two shots. Fugitive dropped burden. Was dressmaker's dummy.

Paul Plapzykowski tried to rob two men. Captured.

New terminal report may not be complete. Engineering experts trying to protect city's interests and favor commission plan.

Jeremiah A. Horrigan, 53, desk sergeant Central Police Station, 4314 Buena Vista Terrace, dead. Heart disease.

Miss Edith Miller, 4555 Prairie av., and Mrs. Transom, 4650 Grand blvd., tango teachers, had rough and tumble fight. Professional jealousy. Arrested.

National Council of Teachers of English discuss simplified spelling. Claim present form is arbitrary and hard to learn.

Over 100 negroes waited three hours for the National Negro Semi-